

ABOUT OUR CHAPTER

OUR LOCAL HISTORY

For more than eight decades, the Jamestown Chapter of the Izaak Walton League has worked to protect the natural resources of Jamestown and Virginia's tidewater region.

WHO WE ARE

As like-minded conservationists—anglers, hunters, and nature lovers of all walks of life—we work locally to promote our conservation mission.

OUR INTERESTS

Our chapter's primary interests are focused on local clean water issues, sustainable living, and advocacy for outdoor users to protect our valuable natural resources.

OUR PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

Save Our Streams - Local stream monitoring.

Southeastern Forest Arboretum - For public education.

Annual Canoe Regatta - To clean the James River.

Pocahontas Was an Outdoor Woman - Skills training.

Hunter and Boater Education Courses - Safety first.

OUR MEETINGS

Our membership meetings are held on the first Sunday of each month (1:00 P.M.) at the John Smith Memorial Chapter House located in historic Jamestown. Our meetings are a great place to meet our members and often feature various special guest speakers on topics of outdoor recreation, nature interests, and conservation issues.

HOW TO JOIN

Simply submit your membership application with payment. It is recommended that you apply at our membership meeting. Dues include your membership at the local, state, and national levels of the Izaak Walton League of America.

DIRECTIONS

We are located at 99999 Roanoke Drive, S.E., Jamestown VA, 12345 with easy access off Interstate-64 at exit 1000.
