Celebrating 100 years of conservation success...

... and building momentum for the next 100 years!

The Izaak Walton League has been defending outdoor America since 1922, when sportsmen and women declared that it was “Time to Call a Halt” to the rampant destruction of our nation’s natural resources.

And we’ve succeeded! Looking back, our record of accomplishment is truly impressive — from creating national parks and wildlife refuges to our decades-long fight to protect clean water. Think about the pioneering role the League played in helping volunteers solve conservation challenges locally with programs like Save Our Streams. Generations of Americans have caught their first fish, shot a rifle, learned to hunt, and developed a life-long love of the outdoors at League chapters across the country.

And now, in just a few short years, the League will reach the century mark. Our 100th anniversary is more than an opportunity to celebrate the past — it’s a springboard to the future.

Become a Century Society Partner and help launch the League into our second century of success!

We need your support to build on the momentum the League has today. From training the next generation of volunteer stream monitors to recruiting more diverse participants to secure the future of fishing, hunting, and shooting sports, the League is achieving results.

By committing to provide financial support over five years, Century Society Partners give the League the ability to work in more communities, engage more volunteers, and achieve more for conservation and outdoor recreation across America.

With your support, we will increase the League’s impact and raise our visibility — through our 100th anniversary and beyond.

We invite you to become a Century Society Partner – and a partner in the League’s success. By making a five-year pledge, you play a critical role in achieving our shared goals for the future.

As a Century Society Partner, you will also receive special “thank you” gifts!

Steward: For a gift of $200-$399 per year, you will receive a set of stoneware mugs hand crafted for the League by Sunset Hill Stoneware. Each custom mug highlights the natural resources League members hold dear: soil, air, woods, waters, and wildlife. You will receive a new mug from this colorful collection every year.

Advocate: With a gift of $400-$599 annually, you will receive the stoneware mugs and a beautiful coffee table book of artwork by painter Terry Redlin. Frequently named “America’s most popular artist,” Redlin is world renowned for his wildlife paintings and outdoor scenes depicting life in rural America. This book offers interviews with the artist, including memories that inspired some of his paintings, as well as original sketches and holiday favorites.

Conservator: For an annual contribution of $600-$999, you will receive the mug set, the Terry Redlin coffee table book, and a custom L.L.Bean barn coat. With vintage style and broken-in softness, these flannel-lined coats with an embroidered League logo will be a long-lasting addition to your wardrobe. (Men’s and women’s styles available.)

Defender: With an annual gift starting at $1,000 per year, you will receive the mug set, the Terry Redlin coffee table book, L.L.Bean barn coat, and a leather bag embossed with the League logo. You may choose either the roomy, oversized tote or the laptop-sized messenger bag – both made in the USA from durable bison leather.

We invite IWLA chapters and divisions to join the Century Society too!
