II. SUMMARY OF CHAPTER / DIVISION ACTIVITIES

In the questions below, we ask you to provide basic information about chapter/division meetings, activities, and uses of property. This information is required to determine the extent to which chapters and divisions are supporting the conservation mission of the Izaak Walton League of America and fulfilling obligations as tax-exempt organizations. In each case, please estimate approximately how much time your chapter/division devoted to these types of activities in 2020. In the case of chapter/division meetings and activities, please indicate whether the primary purpose of an individual activity was for education/conservation; social/recreation; fundraising; or chapter/division operations.

To help you complete this form, here is a list of sample individual activities that would qualify as education/conservation; social/recreation; fundraising; or chapter operations:

Education or Conservation Activities: Hunter/angler conservation or safety education programs; firearms training; stream monitoring; litter pick-up events; tree plantings; presentations at meetings or articles in newsletters on conservation topics; testimony at public hearings on conservation issues; providing facilities to schools, scouts, or other youth groups; student scholarships to study conservation; or providing grants to other conservation organizations.

Social or Recreation Activities: Dances; games (cards, darts, etc.), barbecues or other meals; shooting sports; hunting; fishing, boating, camping.

Fundraising Activities: Auctions; raffles; food sales; membership renewal and recruitment; construction and sale of League items; facility rentals; grant writing and administration.

Chapter/Division Operations: Election of officers; preparation and approval of budgets; review of finances; filing of annual tax returns; maintenance of chapter grounds or buildings.
