

THE FARM BILL IN IOWA

The Farm Bill provides tens of millions of dollars per year in conservation assistance through cost-share, rental payments, easement payments and technical assistance to Iowa farmers. The programs help producers better steward the state's soil, woods, waters and wildlife, and provide conservation and economic benefits.

Environmental Quality Incentives Program

The Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) provides financial and technical support to help farmers integrate beneficial conservation practices on working lands. In 2023, top Iowa EQIP practices included cover crops, no-till, fencing and prescribed grazing.

Iowa in 2023:

- ✓ $35.2 million obligated to producers from Farm Bill funds.
- ✓ 781 contracts, making improvements on 77,059 acres.

Conservation Stewardship Program

In 2023, the Farm Bill invested $17.1 million in Iowa through the Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP). 427 contracts totaled 212,478 acres across the state. CSP helps farmers implement multiple conservation practices over a five-year contract to enhance their entire operation.

In 2023, top Iowa practices included:

-  Cover crops
-  No-till
- ✓  Nutrient management
-  Conservation crop rotation

Conservation Reserve Program

In 2023, 53,623 Iowa farms were enrolled in the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP), covering 1.7 million acres. Of them, 92% held at least one Continuous CRP contract—best known for its practices that can be implemented alongside regular production, such as grassed waterways, filter strips, wetlands and pollinator habitat.

Between 2019-2023, Iowa farmers and landowners received $1.9 billion in annual CRP rental payments.

Conservation Easements

Natural Resources Conservation Service easement programs like the Agricultural Conservation Easement Program help landowners protect their property's conservation value. The agreements can be used to protect farmland, wetlands and more. In 2023, there were 1,687 easements in Iowa, totaling 191,086 acres.

The Izaak Walton League and Iowa

The Izaak Walton League of America was founded in 1922 to conserve outdoor America for future generations. The League's founders, avid anglers, named the organization after Izaak Walton, 17th century author of The Compleat Angler, a classic book about the art and spirit of fishing. Today, the League has 39 local chapters and more than 6,700 members in Iowa.

One of America's oldest conservation groups, the League set a course to defend wild America through public policy. The organization has been involved in agricultural policy since 1937, when a League resolution called for a national program to retire fragile fields in mountainous areas from agricultural use. Today, more than 41,000 members across the country continue the legacy.
