

LOOKING FOR LEADERS

2022 Nominations for National Positions

Nominations are now open for Izaak Walton League of America national officers, executive board, directors at large and the Izaak Walton League Endowment board of directors. Nomination forms must be received by the national office no later than May 1, 2022.

After May 1, nominating committees appointed by the national president, executive board chair and the Endowment president will meet virtually to interview nominees and recommend respective slates of candidates for consideration at the national convention in July. Although the committee process will take place virtually, nominations can also be made from the floor during the convention. Information about members of each nominating committee will be posted separately on the League's national website.

The following includes a brief description of the various positions.

NATIONAL OFFICERS. National officers serve one-year terms in the following positions:

National President: Presides at meetings of the board of directors, presides during parts of the national convention and must project a strong image for the League.

Vice President: Substitutes for the president and performs other duties assigned by the president or executive board.

Secretary: Responsible for keeping an accurate record of all business transacted by the board of directors, executive board and at annual meetings.

Treasurer: Oversees financial management by League staff and performs other duties related to the finances of the League as may be specified by the executive board.

Directors at Large: The National Officer Nominating Committee also is responsible for presenting a roster of candidates for directors at large who represent the interests of states that don't have divisions on the board of directors. Terms are three years. League Bylaws provide for as many as six directors at large.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The 14-member executive board, which includes the four national officers, has full administrative and supervisory responsibility for the national office of the League. Executive board members must be members of the board of directors and are elected to three-year terms. There are three seats open for terms beginning in July 2022.

ENDOWMENT BOARD

The Endowment board of directors has full administrative responsibility for the Izaak Walton League Endowment, a separate corporation that receives earmarked and general contributions for financing conservation projects. Persons elected to the board hold office for three years. There are 3 positions open for terms beginning in July 2022.
